

ENHANCING OUTCOMES IN DEPENDENCY CASES
THROUGH EFFECTIVE COURTROOM ADVOCACY

SAVE THE DATE

FREE TRAINING FOR ATTORNEYS AND CHILD WELFARE WORKERS

THURSDAY, AUGUST 6, 2009 OR
FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 2009
8 AM TO 5 PM

UNIVERSITY OF THE PACIFIC
MCGEORGE SCHOOL OF LAW
3200 5TH AVENUE
SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA 95817

A one-day, multi-disciplinary training for juvenile dependency attorneys, social workers and other child welfare professionals focusing on how to handle contested matters, with an emphasis on refining direct and cross examination skills and testimony. Classes will be co-taught by attorneys trained in the National Institute of Trial Advocacy (NITA) methodology, and Child Welfare Workers with extensive field experience.

Lunch will be provided.

MCLE/BBS credit will be given.

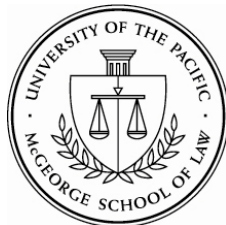

Program details to follow

Space is limited and will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

For pre-registration information, to reserve a space on either date, or for information regarding travel, contact Myrna Caamic at myrna.caamic@jud.ca.gov or at 415-865-4223.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE
OF THE COURTS
CENTER FOR FAMILIES, CHILDREN
& THE COURTS

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA
Training Academy
Supporting Children & Family Services

